

Dress Goods Week

This Week We Make a Special Showing of the New Season's Gown Stuffs.

The subject "Dress Goods" at this store is well worthy of your interest. Our stock to select from was never larger and comprises only those goods we are willing to bank our name against. In this department we have swung for quality, style and price reasonableness.

The New Black Goods.

There is a demand for black goods. Mohairs, Prunella, Melrose, Poplins, Zibelines, Cheviots and Broadcloths are our best numbers, ranging in price from 50c to $1.50 per yard.

Dress Fabrics in Plain Colors.

Zibelines, Mohairs, Panama Cloths and Broadcloths figure very strong in this line. A special is our Zibeline at 69c per yard.

Stylish Mixtures.

We are already selling lots of Manish Mixtures. They make the very best kind of suits and skirts. Special numbers at 50c, 87c and $1.00 per yard.

In every line we emphasize style, quality and price justice. A pleasure to show you the goods and a delight to sell you the goods that will please you.

HOMER FITTS

The Store for Prompt, Courteous and Careful Attention.

Oysters Every Day This Week

CLAMS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Have you tried our Swordfish? It's very nice. Better have some. Nice Preserving Peas this week, 40c per peck. We shall also be ready to fill your orders for Preserving Peaches within a few days. Prompt service.

Mr. X.—"I begin to see it." Mr. B.—"We ought not to be obliged to appeal to the selfish reasons for insurance. A man's duty to his family should be enough. But here's the proposition. You can be selfish and perfectly unselfish at the same time by depositing your money in an investment insurance trust fund. Protection—unselfish. Savings—(remember, every cent). Well, that's hardly selfishness, is it?" Mr. X.—"No, Ballard, that's prudence. Protection—Savings—Prudence. I see it differently. Write it up, age 32." Ballard & Co., reliable insurance.

MONTPELIER.

John E. Adams, assistant sergeant-at-arm, was at the State House yesterday preparing a list of needed supplies for that office.

Arthur P. Johannott, returned on Thursday from Kennebunk, Me. He is much improved in health by his summer at the beach and will be entirely well as soon as he can gain strength.

G. N. Stebbins, who has been connected with the St. Albans branch of the Swift Beef Company, has been transferred to the Montpelier branch of the company.

The Colton & More stone shed, occupied by the firms of E. E. Craven & Co., and John Ruscher, was recently purchased by Mrs. Julia Ruscher.

J. G. Brown made a net score of 41 on the Country Club links on Thursday afternoon. This is lower than any record thus far made this year on the links.

Edward Lee and Jerry Lee, charged with larceny of a gun, the property of George E. White of this city, from a camp at Hardwood Flats, were given a hearing before Justice Smith Waite at Elmore on Thursday afternoon. Edward Lee was bound over under $500 and his brother under $200. Deputies Fitzgerald and Smith and Mr. White of this city attended the hearing.

EAST MONTPELIER.

John Lawrence of Montpelier is acting as station agent for the present.

Mrs. John Willard did not go to Buffalo last Saturday as expected, but will go soon.

A large number of people from this town attended the Northfield fair.

Charles Degrenia of Williamstown was in town Monday on business.

Mrs. Abbie Mallory went to Randolph Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Sprague.

George Howland was ill several days last week and Dr. Reid of Barre was called. Mr. Howland is now able to be about as usual.

E. B. Arbuckle attended the fair at St. Johnsbury Wednesday.

Herbert Kelton had a flock of sheep on exhibition at the St. Johnsbury fair, and he with his family attended the fair.

Much relief is felt by the residents near the station that Mr. Choiniere has got through his work as agent and gone back to Canada. He had too many apoplexy to be an agreeable neighbor.

Russia's Reply Received.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—Russia's reply to the representations of the United States and Great Britain regarding contraband of war has been communicated to their respective embassies. It is understood that Russia recognizes the principle that provisions are not contraband when consigned to private parties, but only contraband when intended as military or naval stores.
